

I have found Airl to be my most favored radio station. It is the only station we have with this type of music that I have heard. And they are always giving good advice from helping the homeless to marriage. All of this is done with an focus on God and I find this to be a great help to me in keeping with my faith. I do hope this helps you understand what Airl means to me. Thank you for your time William Brainard